

CELEBRATE NATIONAL INCLUSION WEEK

WITH A TRULY DIVERSE GROUP OF SPEAKERS

The inaugural Inclusion and Diversity Summit by Moving Ahead takes place on Monday 23rd September 2019, 2.30pm at GOOGLE St Giles, London

THE INCLUSION &
DIVERSITY SUMMIT

By Moving Ahead

Hosted in collaboration with the 30% Club, the event celebrates National Inclusion Week through powerful stories, provocative fireside conversations, video and performance.

Watch the initial speaker line-up video ▶

Confirmed speakers currently include:

Jake Graf and Hannah Graf MBE

Following a screening of a short film by director Jake, this 'trans power couple' will discuss living and working as transgender today

MEET THEM ▶

Dame Stephanie Shirley CH

Pioneering technology entrepreneur and philanthropist, Dame Stephanie will make a case for employing individuals with one of the world's most prevalent invisible disabilities

WATCH HER AT INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY ▶

This video is password protected. Password: IWD2019

Karl Lokko

Poet, activist and former gang member, Karl brought the house down at our International Women's Day 2019 event. He'll be back to talk about what inclusion means to him.

EXPERIENCE KARL'S POETRY ▶

Caroline Casey

Management consultant turned elephant adventurer, TED storyteller and founder of The Valuable 500 campaign, Caroline will issue a powerful call to action to businesses across the world

WATCH HER TED TALK ▶

MOVING AHEAD

WOMEN AHEAD

THE INCLUSION &
DIVERSITY SUMMIT
By Moving Ahead

Daniel Danso

Global Diversity Manager for Linklaters, Daniel will share his experiences and understanding of inclusion from childhood to modern-day business

WATCH DANIEL AT INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY ▶

This video is password protected. Password: Balance2019

Nick Shackleton-Jones

Director of Learning and Performance Innovation at PA Consulting Group and author of 'How people learn', Nick will share insights and experiences from the frontline of learning and inclusion

HEAR FROM NICK ▶

Derek Paravicini (musical performance)

Acclaimed pianist Derek Paravicini became blind shortly after birth. Also autistic, he is considered a musical savant, and will share his incredible talent with us at the summit.

WATCH HIS TED TALK ▶

SARAH WINCKLESS MBE ▶

MELISSA DOMAN ▶

DR KATE GOODGER ▶

RACHEL VECHT

PAVITA COOPER

The first of three panels will discuss the role of line managers in creating an inclusive culture and will feature leadership expert and Olympian Sarah Winckless MBE, organisational psychologist Melissa Doman, Olympic performance psychologist Dr Kate Goodger, parenting and caring expert Rachel Vecht and culture and inclusion specialist Pavita Cooper.

Two further panels will invite subject-matter experts, CEOs and change agents to explore the power of mentoring to foster inclusion, and creating inclusive organisational cultures. Panellists will include 30% Club Global co-Chair Ann Cairns and Director of Oliver Wyman Forum and UK Social Impact, Rupal Kantaria.

MOVING AHEAD

WOMEN AHEAD

THE INCLUSION & DIVERSITY SUMMIT
By Moving Ahead

How to join us

Online access gives you:

- ▶ The video broadcast. Available 24 hours after the event on a year-long licence, you and all your colleagues can watch the entire summit online at an internally-organised event during National Inclusion Week, or whenever convenient.
- ▶ The film collection. This collection of separate TED-style videos of each speaker, panel and performance can be accessed by your colleagues at any time during the following 12 months – ideal for screening at internal and network events.

£2,500

As a Summit partner

We are fortunate to partner with a small number of organisations to bring our summits to life and help take the content further, for example, we aim to showcase all content free to UK schools and universities. Benefits include 10 VIP tickets to the live event, as well as opportunities for branding and introducing speakers.

£5,000

To discuss, take part in or support the Inclusion and Diversity Summit, please contact katherine@moving-ahead.org

Think ahead for International Women's Day

Our Gender Balance Summit by Women Ahead is scheduled for Monday 2nd March 2020, at the Royal Institute in London.

Join us online for both the Inclusion and Diversity Summit and the Gender Balance Summit for a reduced price of £4,000. Partnership options are also available.

WATCH THE IWD 2019 HIGHLIGHTS HERE ▶

MOVING AHEAD

WOMEN AHEAD

