How to join us

Online access gives you:

- ▶ The video broadcast. Available 24 hours after the event on a year-long licence, you and all your colleagues can watch the entire summit online at an internally-organised event during National Inclusion Week, or whenever convenient.
- ▶ The film collection. This collection of separate TED-style videos of each speaker, panel and performance can be accessed by your colleagues at any time during the following 12 months – ideal for screening at internal and network events.

£2,500

As a Summit partner

We are fortunate to partner with a small number of organisations to bring our summits to life and help take the content further, for example, we aim to showcase all content free to UK schools and universities. Benefits include 10 VIP tickets to the live event, as well as opportunities for branding and introducing speakers.

£5,000
